

The Bulletin

Norwich, Wednesday, Oct. 7, 1914.

VARIOUS MATTERS

The state commission on fisheries and game met at the capitol Tuesday. Somerset lodge will work the E. A. degree tonight—adv.

The Connecticut Y. M. C. A. boy workers' conference was held Monday at the New Britain Y. M. C. A.

Plans are being made for several Halloween social affairs. This year the 31st falls on Saturday.

An interesting prayer meeting of the women of the Central Baptist church, held Tuesday afternoon, was led by Mrs. Frank Peckham.

Department Commander F. V. Streeter and staff will visit the Norton soldiers' home Oct. 15 and Francis Long post, Williamstown, Nov. 3.

A teachers' meeting for all the teachers in the town of Montville was held at the Palmer Memorial school a few days ago by Supervisor Carlton E. Wheeler.

It is believed that Ernest Dekoven, Lettingwell of Pasadena, Cal., who has just finished charting the north Alaskan coast, is of the Connecticut family of Lettingwells.

Carrie L. Tourtellot, 75, widow of Elijah D. Tourtellot, died in her home at 59 Charles street in Springfield, Mass., Monday following a brief illness. She was born in Pleasant Valley, Conn.

W. R. C. supper tonight, Buckingham Memorial, 5 to 7. Price 20c—adv.

Miss Clara Williams Burton and Campbell Williams Bowser will be married this (Wednesday) evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Martin, 128 Mohegan avenue, New London.

The sermon at the East Hampton Methodist church Sunday morning was delivered by Rev. George G. Scrivenor of Norwich, who had held the quarterly conference there the evening before.

That the government is taking great interest in the care of trees all over the country is indicated by a communication which Connecticut tree wardens have received from the department of agriculture regarding looking after local tree life.

The number of pupils at the Sacred Heart school in Groton has increased to such an extent that an eighth grade has been added. Sister Mary Rose, who is principal, will now have two assistants, Sister Mary Ida and Sister Mary Nolan.

A young ladies' teachers' training class will soon be started in the congregational Sunday school of Saybrook, where Rev. F. White, formerly of Ledyard, is pastor. Two classes were advanced from the primary department.

Supt. Freeland Woodward of the Odd Fellows Fairview home has received orders to clean and repaint the room designed several years ago for a barber shop and to put it in readiness for furnishing. It is believed that a lodge in Bridgeport is planning to supply the room.

A special meeting of the American Barred Plymouth Rock club was held Saturday at Waterbury, when delegates from all parts of the state were present. It was voted to hold the annual meeting of the club in Waterbury in January. The state cup was also awarded the Waterbury show.

At Milford at the celebration of the 150th anniversary of the organization of St. Peter's Episcopal parish Saturday and Sunday, the pastor, Rev. J. H. Fitzgerald of Hebron, rector from 1878 to 1898.

An old Saybrook correspondent notes that George W. Berian has arrived from Canada and is making his house ready to receive his family, who are expected for the winter. Mrs. Walter Wellington and family, who occupied the place during the summer, left for their home in New York city Thursday.

Five were Fined and Five were Discharged for Fight in Greenville.

In the city court on Monday, there were eighteen cases to be settled by Judge T. J. Kelly. Ten of them came from a breach of the peace preferred against ten men who had been arrested shortly after midnight Saturday in the yard of No. 550 North Main street. Where a general battle broke out between a group of men who were in progress. The arrests made after a woman had telephoned to Captain Twomey at police headquarters that the men were fighting "something awful." Sergeant John Kane, Policemen Michael Carroll and Ryan were sent there. Their arrival quelled the disturbance in the course of which one man had been hit in the head with a brick.

In court five of the men were discharged and the other five were fined varying from $10 to $35. The section of the page where their names were entered on the blotter looked like mustard on the Russian-Polish army.

Joseph St. Cyr of Taftville, who speaks only French, paid a fine of $5 and costs. He appeared at the home of Thomas J. McVeigh on Taft street after midnight Saturday, but was frightened away from there. Next John Madden heard a man on his front porch and when he opened the door St. Cyr fell into the hall. Mr. Madden grabbed the man, but he broke away and ran off across the lots. It was believed by the people at the house that a possible burglary had been frustrated so they reported to the police, and St. Cyr fell into the police dragnet that was thrown out. He was arrested going towards Taftville on Central avenue by Policemen Carroll and Delaney. In court he was charged with intoxication.

DECIDE ON PRIZES. Eagles Will Reward Merchants for Window Decorations.

At their last meeting the committee in charge of the Eagles' fair to be held in the near future voted to offer two cash prizes, $5 first and $2.50 second, for the best Eagle show window display. Any store in the city may enter the contest and the only conditions are that the window must remain trimmed for one week, but that this must include two Saturdays. The contest starts on Saturday of this week. The Eagles' committee as far as possible will give prizes to the winners to those who wish to apply for them.

25 Year Old Horse Stolen. Deputy Sheriff J. H. Tubbs has notified the Norwich police department that he is looking for a little old white horse that was stolen out of a pasture in Hadley some time between Saturday and Sunday. The horse is 25 years old. It has been tracked towards Norwich and New London.

PERSONALS

William Patton of Westerly is visiting in town.

Jake Andriola of Groton spent Sunday in Norwich.

Mrs. Robert B. Gorton of Niantic is passing a few days in Norwich.

Bill Adams of Pawtucket, R. I. is visiting relatives in Central Village and Plainfield.

William H. Proctor and W. N. Tobbs of East Lyme were in Norwich Monday on business.

Lou Bennetto of Montville spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Calvin Bennetto, of Chester.

Miss Mary Freeman of Norwich is visiting Rev. and Mrs. W. N. Tobbs at the Parsonsage-by-the-Sea, Stonington.

Arnold C. Adams of Whitinsville, Mass., called on his brothers, J. H. and L. B. Adams of Central Village, Saturday.

Miss Grace Sheffield and Miss Evelyn Main of North Stonington have returned after a brief visit with friends in Norwich.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. James F. Thurston and Miss Ida Thurston closed their summer home, Tachonic, on East Beach, Quonochontaug, R. I., and returned to Hallville.

Miss Lottie Treat of South Manchester, sister of Charles C. Treat of Norwich, who has passed the summer at the Treat cottage at Pleasant View, left Monday for Spencer, Mass., where she will be supervisor of music in the schools of Spencer and Leicester, Mass.

WEDDINGS

Condren-Wiedwald. A pretty autumn home wedding was solemnized at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon when Rev. Theodore Bauck, pastor of the German Lutheran church, united in marriage George B. Condren and Miss Laura Minnie Wiedwald at the home of the bride, No. 91 North Cliff street.

The bride was escorted by her sister, Miss Emma Wiedwald, as bridesmaid, and the best man was William Stanton. The bride was charmingly gowned in crepe de chine with shadow lace and the bridesmaid wore a handsome gown of yellow brocade silk with shadow lace and pearl trimmings.

After the ceremony there was a wedding dinner and reception for the many guests. Following their wedding tour to Providence, Mr. and Mrs. Condren will reside at No. 91 North Cliff street.

There were a number of handsome gifts, including cut glass, silverware, furniture and linen. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace and the bride's gift to her bridesmaid was a handsome gold bracelet. The groom presented his best man a gold chain and fob.

Mr. Condren, who is a native of Colchester, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan A. Condren and employed as a paperhanger. He has resided at 30 West Thames street. His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Wiedwald and resides with her parents at No. 91 North Cliff street.

Mr. and Mrs. Condren have a large number of friends who wish them a happy future.

Crandall-Kinck. The wedding of Miss Florence Kinck, daughter of Charles H. Kinck, and Herbert Orrin Crandall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fitch D. Crandall, took place Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Kinck cottage, Ocean Spray, Ocean Beach. Because of the recent death of the bride's mother, only the immediate families were included in the list of guests. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Alfred Grint of St. Johnsbury, Vt., formerly rector of St. James church in New London.

The bride wore a gown of ivory white satin with a long tulle veil caught up with orange blossoms. Her only attendant was her little niece, Alma Clarke, as flower bearer.

Mr. and Mrs. Crandall left New London on an extended automobile trip, on their return from which they will make their residence there where the bridegroom is associated with his father in the real estate and insurance business.

Wenda-Lukowska. At St. Joseph's church on Monday morning Stanislaus Wenda and Miss Stanislas Lukowska were united in marriage by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Fitzgerald. Both are natives of Russian Poland and reside at No. 86 Thames street.

Then in Corresponding Twelve Months in 1913—Total in 1914 Was $406,623.52.

The automobile department of the state secretary's office reports that for the year ending Sept. 30, 1914, the revenue from automobile licenses amounted to $406,623.52. In 1913 the amount realized from the same source was $320,796.52, this year showing an increase of $85,826.92.

Licenses for pleasure and commercial vehicles were the principal source of revenue. In 1913 there were 25,446 licenses issued, for which the sum of $285,850 was received. For the fiscal year 1914 the number of licenses was 26,811 and the revenue $291,371.38.

There were 823 livery cars licensed in 1913 and 1,289 in the following year. The revenue from them was: In 1913, $6,539.30; in 1914, $10,302.10.

There were 272 commercial licenses in 1913 and 36,955.82 received. In 1914 the number was reduced to 171, but the revenue amounted to $7,249.97. The increase in the revenue from this source, notwithstanding the reduction in the number of licenses, was due to an increase in the license fee from $20 to $50.

The motorcycles increased from 2,854 in 1913 to 3,323 and the receipts from $4,456.04 to $5,234.84.

There were 36,372 motor vehicle operators' licenses issued, for which there was paid the sum of $72,744. as against 30,129 licenses and $60,258 in 1913.

The number of motorcyclists increased from 2,224 to 2,343 and the revenue from licenses from $4,443 to $4,690.

SUNDAY SCHOOL SOCIAL FOR BROADWAY CHURCH. Pleasant Musical Programme Followed by Refreshments.

A delightful Sunday school social was held in the parlors of Broadway Congregational church on Tuesday evening, and a large number of the young people were present. There were 15 Edison discs and a disc phonograph loaned by the Porteous & Mitchell company and operated by Miss Topliff, a representative of the company. Miss Olga Wurdie rendered a violin solo, accompanied by Miss Margarette Wolf. After several more phonograph selections, Miss Marion Kimball sang a soprano solo. A Perfect Day, accompanied by Miss Florine Schofield. Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served by the following committee: Miss Hattie Carter, Miss Marion Kimball and Mrs. John Kukla. Supt. Herbert B. Cary was in general charge of the social.

CEMENT ROADWAYS FOR BRIDGES

Selectmen Will Use $10,286 Voted by Town Meeting—

Some of the Smaller Bridges Will be Repaired First—

Structures Have to be Strengthened to Carry Weight of Cement Roadbed.

Cement roadways for a number of the bridges of the town, as well as the strengthening of the bridges to carry the weight of the new roadbeds, will be the use to which the $10,286.04 will be put, which was voted in the town meeting on Monday night, although the selectmen, Mr. W. L. Libridge said on Tuesday that he could not tell just which or how many bridges this kind of work would be done on. Norwich is literally endowed with bridges which the town has to care for, in fact he thought it probable that more bridges than any other town of the state.

Arnold C. Adams of Whitinsville, Mass., called on his brothers, J. H. and L. B. Adams of Central Village, Saturday.

Miss Grace Sheffield and Miss Evelyn Main of North Stonington have returned after a brief visit with friends in Norwich.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. James F. Thurston and Miss Ida Thurston closed their summer home, Tachonic, on East Beach, Quonochontaug, R. I., and returned to Hallville.

Miss Lottie Treat of South Manchester, sister of Charles C. Treat of Norwich, who has passed the summer at the Treat cottage at Pleasant View, left Monday for Spencer, Mass., where she will be supervisor of music in the schools of Spencer and Leicester, Mass.

Condren-Wiedwald. A pretty autumn home wedding was solemnized at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon when Rev. Theodore Bauck, pastor of the German Lutheran church, united in marriage George B. Condren and Miss Laura Minnie Wiedwald at the home of the bride, No. 91 North Cliff street.

The bride was escorted by her sister, Miss Emma Wiedwald, as bridesmaid, and the best man was William Stanton. The bride was charmingly gowned in crepe de chine with shadow lace and the bridesmaid wore a handsome gown of yellow brocade silk with shadow lace and pearl trimmings.

After the ceremony there was a wedding dinner and reception for the many guests. Following their wedding tour to Providence, Mr. and Mrs. Condren will reside at No. 91 North Cliff street.

There were a number of handsome gifts, including cut glass, silverware, furniture and linen. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace and the bride's gift to her bridesmaid was a handsome gold bracelet. The groom presented his best man a gold chain and fob.

Mr. Condren, who is a native of Colchester, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan A. Condren and employed as a paperhanger. He has resided at 30 West Thames street. His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Wiedwald and resides with her parents at No. 91 North Cliff street.

Mr. and Mrs. Condren have a large number of friends who wish them a happy future.

Crandall-Kinck. The wedding of Miss Florence Kinck, daughter of Charles H. Kinck, and Herbert Orrin Crandall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fitch D. Crandall, took place Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Kinck cottage, Ocean Spray, Ocean Beach. Because of the recent death of the bride's mother, only the immediate families were included in the list of guests. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Alfred Grint of St. Johnsbury, Vt., formerly rector of St. James church in New London.

The bride wore a gown of ivory white satin with a long tulle veil caught up with orange blossoms. Her only attendant was her little niece, Alma Clarke, as flower bearer.

Mr. and Mrs. Crandall left New London on an extended automobile trip, on their return from which they will make their residence there where the bridegroom is associated with his father in the real estate and insurance business.

Wenda-Lukowska. At St. Joseph's church on Monday morning Stanislaus Wenda and Miss Stanislas Lukowska were united in marriage by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Fitzgerald. Both are natives of Russian Poland and reside at No. 86 Thames street.

Then in Corresponding Twelve Months in 1913—Total in 1914 Was $406,623.52.

The automobile department of the state secretary's office reports that for the year ending Sept. 30, 1914, the revenue from automobile licenses amounted to $406,623.52. In 1913 the amount realized from the same source was $320,796.52, this year showing an increase of $85,826.92.

Licenses for pleasure and commercial vehicles were the principal source of revenue. In 1913 there were 25,446 licenses issued, for which the sum of $285,850 was received. For the fiscal year 1914 the number of licenses was 26,811 and the revenue $291,371.38.

There were 823 livery cars licensed in 1913 and 1,289 in the following year. The revenue from them was: In 1913, $6,539.30; in 1914, $10,302.10.

There were 272 commercial licenses in 1913 and 36,955.82 received. In 1914 the number was reduced to 171, but the revenue amounted to $7,249.97. The increase in the revenue from this source, notwithstanding the reduction in the number of licenses, was due to an increase in the license fee from $20 to $50.

The motorcycles increased from 2,854 in 1913 to 3,323 and the receipts from $4,456.04 to $5,234.84.

There were 36,372 motor vehicle operators' licenses issued, for which there was paid the sum of $72,744. as against 30,129 licenses and $60,258 in 1913.

The number of motorcyclists increased from 2,224 to 2,343 and the revenue from licenses from $4,443 to $4,690.

SUNDAY SCHOOL SOCIAL FOR BROADWAY CHURCH. Pleasant Musical Programme Followed by Refreshments.

A delightful Sunday school social was held in the parlors of Broadway Congregational church on Tuesday evening, and a large number of the young people were present. There were 15 Edison discs and a disc phonograph loaned by the Porteous & Mitchell company and operated by Miss Topliff, a representative of the company. Miss Olga Wurdie rendered a violin solo, accompanied by Miss Margarette Wolf. After several more phonograph selections, Miss Marion Kimball sang a soprano solo. A Perfect Day, accompanied by Miss Florine Schofield. Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served by the following committee: Miss Hattie Carter, Miss Marion Kimball and Mrs. John Kukla. Supt. Herbert B. Cary was in general charge of the social.

For Father Mathew Anniversary. St. Mary's T. A. and B. society had a largely attended meeting Tuesday evening. Routine business was transacted and arrangements were completed for Father Mathew anniversary next Friday night. The address will be delivered by Rev. Father Landry of Baltimore and the committee has also arranged for a literary and musical program.

New London Bankruptcy. In a bankruptcy schedule filed with Bankruptcy Referee A. A. Browning, Malloch Bros., who have been conducting business in New London for years, make the following showing: Schedule A—Taxes $15, wages due $28, unsecured claims $6,285.06; total, $7,138.06. Schedule B—Cash on hand $30, stock in trade $800, household goods etc., $500, machinery, tools, etc., $200, debts due on open accounts $125.00, policies of insurance $1,000, deposits in bank $80, property claimed to be exempt $1,500, total $3,785.90. The firm was composed of George and John Malloch.

Incidents in Society. Channing P. Huntington was a week end visitor in Hartford.

Miss Isabel Mitchell is visiting friends in Englewood, N. J.

Miss Marion Bishop left town Monday to spend the winter in settlement work in Boston.

Miss Charlotte Bishop has left town to make her home with relatives in New York city.

Miss Anna Ely of Washington street, left town this week for an outing in Manchester, Vt.

The Sewing club held their first meeting of the season Monday afternoon with Mrs. W. Russell Baird.

The Harmony Whist club held its first meeting of the season Monday afternoon with Miss Fanny I. Williams of East Town street.

Mrs. Nathan G. Gilbert and Mrs. John L. Mitchell have returned from New York, where they were the guests of the former's son, Stowell Gilbert.

Mrs. Grosvenor Ely entertained a party of children at her home on Washington street Monday afternoon, it being the sixth birthday of Grosvenor Ely, Jr. All sorts of games were played. The supper table was most attractive, the centerpiece being a huge pumpkin filled with prizes. Those present were Frances Coit, Barbara Mitchell, Beatrice Leonard, Margaret Austin, Marion Gaudet, Denise Gaudet, Eben Learned, Samuel Bigelow, Molly Bigelow and Gibbs Mitchell.

WE HAVE THEM WHY NOT PAINT NOW!

BEST COURSES! BEST TEACHERS! BEST GRADUATES! BEST POSITIONS! BEST SALARIES!

THEY ARE TOURS FOR ATTENDING THE NORWICH BUSINESS COLLEGE

99-105 Main St. W. E. Canfield, Proprietor.

Try Obelisk Sanitary Brand from RALLION'S

City of Norwich Water Works

Office of Board of Water Commissioners, Norwich, Conn., Oct. 1, 1914.

Water rates for the quarter ending Sept. 30, 1914, are due and payable at the office Oct. 1, 1914. Office open from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Additional bills will be made to all bills remaining unpaid after Oct. 30, 1914.

JOHN J. STEPA, Cashier.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove it.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system.

They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or disagreeable effects of any kind.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, you will know them by their olive color.

Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

OBITUARY. Benjamin Burgess. Benjamin Burgess, formerly of this city, died suddenly in Chicago Tuesday at the age of 52 years. Up till a few years ago he had been a resident of Norwich, being employed as a time-keeper but since that time he had resided in Arkansas, Chicago and other cities in the west. His mother, Mrs. Charles E. Burgess, died four years ago last September. He is survived by his father, Charles E. Burgess, a brother, Dr. Cecil Burgess, in Providence, and a sister, Mrs. Arthur Cobleigh of North Stonington. The body is to be brought here for burial.

Although so many wells are dry, the fine well on the Charles H. Brown estate, used every summer by Galea Ferry cottagers, has an abundant supply of water.

Incidents in Society. Channing P. Huntington was a week end visitor in Hartford.

Miss Isabel Mitchell is visiting friends in Englewood, N. J.

Miss Marion Bishop left town Monday to spend the winter in settlement work in Boston.

Miss Charlotte Bishop has left town to make her home with relatives in New York city.

Miss Anna Ely of Washington street, left town this week for an outing in Manchester, Vt.

The Sewing club held their first meeting of the season Monday afternoon with Mrs. W. Russell Baird.

The Harmony Whist club held its first meeting of the season Monday afternoon with Miss Fanny I. Williams of East Town street.

Mrs. Nathan G. Gilbert and Mrs. John L. Mitchell have returned from New York, where they were the guests of the former's son, Stowell Gilbert.

Mrs. Grosvenor Ely entertained a party of children at her home on Washington street Monday afternoon, it being the sixth birthday of Grosvenor Ely, Jr. All sorts of games were played. The supper table was most attractive, the centerpiece being a huge pumpkin filled with prizes. Those present were Frances Coit, Barbara Mitchell, Beatrice Leonard, Margaret Austin, Marion Gaudet, Denise Gaudet, Eben Learned, Samuel Bigelow, Molly Bigelow and Gibbs Mitchell.

WE HAVE THEM WHY NOT PAINT NOW!

BEST COURSES! BEST TEACHERS! BEST GRADUATES! BEST POSITIONS! BEST SALARIES!

THEY ARE TOURS FOR ATTENDING THE NORWICH BUSINESS COLLEGE

99-105 Main St. W. E. Canfield, Proprietor.

Try Obelisk Sanitary Brand from RALLION'S

City of Norwich Water Works

Office of Board of Water Commissioners, Norwich, Conn., Oct. 1, 1914.

Water rates for the quarter ending Sept. 30, 1914, are due and payable at the office Oct. 1, 1914. Office open from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Additional bills will be made to all bills remaining unpaid after Oct. 30, 1914.

JOHN J. STEPA, Cashier.

CUMMINGS &amp; RING

Funeral Directors

and Embalmers

337 MAIN STREET

Opposite Post Office.

Phone 1052-2 Lady Assistant

9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Daily

10 a. m. to 1 p. m. Sundays

WE NEVER

tell you a tooth can be saved if it can't, to secure a fee for treatments. On the other hand we always advise you to save your teeth if possible.

Our system of Dentistry has saved many teeth that have been pronounced worthless.

You're sure of absolutely honest advice here. No charge for examinations, and only the most reasonable prices for the most skillful work—always absolutely painless—work that stands the test of time.

DR. F. C. JACKSON

DR. D. J. COYLE

Succeeding the King Dental Company,

203 Main Street.

Next to Boston Store.

Lady Assistant. Phone 1282-3

Alarm Clocks

We have the best Alarm

Clock in this city for $1.,

fully guaranteed.

Others at $1.25 and up.

Big Bens $2.50

Baby Bens $2.50

Buy your Alarm Clocks

here.

THE PLAUT-CADDEN CO.

Established 1872